Kevin graduates with 33-1 shock

KEVIN FROST, unable to ride for five months after a horse fell on him, had a welcome change of luck yesterday when The Undergraduate gave him his first-ever success.

The shock 33-1 winner foiled a gamble on Martin Pipe's Golden Glitter, backed from 9-2 to 4-5 in the opening Haldon Moor Novices Hurdle at Exeter.

Heavy mist meant that racgoers saw little of the racises throughout the afternoon.

Frost reported that he took up the running approaching the final flight and beat The Tariahs by two lengths, with Golden Glitter third.

The victory completed a memorable two days for Stratford-on-avon trainer Chris Trietline, who saddled Gembridge Jupiter to win at Aintree the previous day.

Frost from Barnsley, joined Trietline a year ago but was badly hurt when a young horse, frightened by a pasing car, slipped and fell on a road.

Frost's left foot was crushed, he needed operations, and was unable to ride for five months.

DAILY MIRROR GREYHOUND GRAND NATIONAL

Raft ready to bail out punters

TALKING dog Knight Of Raft has not exactly set the Daily Mirror Grand National alight in two expensive sorties round Hall Green.

By HARRY LLOYD

The Wimbledon timber-topper has been anything but a shining knight to punters, who have twice burned their fingers on the hotshot who attracted a bid of £30,000 because of his potential.

But it is worth noting the explanation of his trainer Norah McEllimstrim, who has twice landed the Mirror Classic.

Says Norah: "He needs a couple of races round a track before he gets the hang of it."

Now it's crunch time for Knight Of Raft (8.35) who cannot afford the slightest lapse.

The Raft, who pulverised his rivals in the novices' event The Springbook, has not quite come to tar.'s with Hall Green's banked bends.

But he has shown plenty of determination and should be nicely poised on the outer to pounce along the back straight.

Nursery Pet made all in the second round and from the same Trap 1 can again be prominent.

Raceway Mick is improving all the time and the former top-class Flat performer cannot be ignored.

Scottie Hero (8.51) and new hurdling find Dominican Court, both unbeaten, are poised to fight out a fascinating duel in the other semi.

Dominican Court the fastest so far, may not get all his own way this time on the inner and the fluent Hero just earns the vote.

SATURDAY YANKEE

SIX one-point win doubles; FOUR one-point win trebles; and ONE one-point win accumulator: MONLENA DARKIE (12.42 Hackney); WIGGY PARK JET (9.41 Southend); CARPY (9.43 Romford) and STARTERS ORDERS (10.10 Wembley).

Unlucky Monlena can atone

UNLUCKY Monlena Darkie (12.42) has a bright chance to bounce back to form in the main event at Hackney today, writes Harry Lloyd.

Trainer Lionel Maxen's three-year-old was in all sorts of trouble in his latest effort but recovered gamely to be beaten under three lengths.

A quicker exit would put him in a commanding position at the first bend where he should make the rest of the running.

Debutante Monlena Lady has been pitched in at the deep end but her useful trials obviously persuaded grader Michael Marks she was up to the task.
