

ALL THE FUN OF THE FESTIVAL

IF I was allowed to bet, See You Then would be my Cheltenham banker in this afternoon's Waterford Crystal Champion Hurdle.

The horse really impressed me at Sandown when he wasn't fully fit and there is no reason why he shouldn't beat them all the same way today.

It might be dangerous to ignore Gaye Brief, who has won the race before, while Aonoch and Corporal Clinger could both do well.

But while you can say that this horse has a chance and that horse has a chance, none of them has looked good enough to stop See You Then.

My best chance today looks to be on Karenmore, the horse who got me into trouble through no fault of his own at

Jonjo O'Neill

Sandown when my stirrup leather broke at the first fence.

I have bought some new leathers to make sure it doesn't happen again and while Karenmore has the reputation of being a bit of a chancey jumper he is OK when he gets his act together.

I am also looking for a good run from Honeygrove Banker in the first. I couldn't ride him at Doncaster where he fell, but they say he would have been second or third and there were some useful horses behind.

There are only about twenty dangers including Canute Express, who won so nicely at Cheltenham on Saturday.

Deep Idol, Shannon Spray and Knockelly Castle finished first second and third when I was in Ireland and while Knockelly Castle is the one with the big reputation I don't think there will be much between them.

Berlin and Desert Orchid had a great battle at Sandown and I wouldn't be surprised to see them finish first and second again in the Arkle Chase.

JONJO O'NEILL was talking to CHARLES FAWCUS.
