Betting Forecast.—3 April Seventh, 4 Matchboard, 6 Interview II, Rough House, 8 Castleruddery, 10 Hinterland, 12 Prophecy, 14 Great Haven, Sarona.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: HINTERLAND is set to repeat last year's success in this event if reproducing the run that gained him a clear-cut victory over Maniwaki at Wincanton (3m. 1f.) in January. May have found the soft ground against him in two subsequent efforts.

APRIL SEVENTH has made up into a really useful handicap 'chaser. Smooth winner from Dicasee, very easy winner at Chepstow last Saturday, on soft ground at Lingfield (3m.) last month.

INTERVIEW II gave an in-form display with a victory over Dorlesa at Teesside (3m. 31yd.) last month.

CASTLERUDDERY comes into the reckoning on his third to Financial News and Tuesday's National Hunt 'Chase winner Mr. Midland (received 16lb.) at Punchestown (3m. 6f.) last time out.

1973: HINTERLAND. 7-10-7, 5-2 f Foulkes (T. Forster). Favourites: 0 0 1 1 1.

Betting Forecast.—5-4 Attivo, 6 Supreme Halo, 8 Relevant, 10 Banlieu, 16 Adam's Well, Antonius, 20 Gleaming Silver, 25 Tip the Wink, Contenda, 33 Mightier Yet, Beau Regard.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: ATTIVO started his hurdling career with a facile victory over Park Lawn here (2m. 200yd.) in January. Showed there was no fluke about that performance with a twenty-length success over SUPREME HALO at Newbury (2m.) last month. Likes to bowl along in front.

SUPREME HALO was badly inconvenienced by a loose horse when a half-length second to the subsequently disqualified Legal Tender in the Yellow Pages Hurdle at Kempton (2m.) last time out. Game and consistent.

RELEVANT finished fourth in the Yellow Pages Hurdle. Stepped up on that effort when his powerful late run saw him a three-quarter-length winner from BANLIEU (levels) at Haydock (2m.).

GLEAMING SILVER has proved useful in this type of company in Ireland. Fair sixth in the Prestige Scalp Hurdle at Leopardstown (2m.) last month.

DUAL FORECAST: PENDIL, THE DIKLER.

Betting Forecast.—4-5 Pendil, 7-2 The Dikler, 6 Captain Christy, 8 Inkslinger, 16 Game Spirit, 20 Charlie Potheen, 50 High Ken.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: PENDIL, after looking all over a winner two from home in the Gold Cup last year, faltered on the run-in and, although rallying strongly, failed by a short head to hold THE DIKLER'S late run. His preparation cannot be faulted and he can gain his revenge for that one defeat in sixteen 'chases.

THE DIKLER has been brought steadily along this campaign. Successfully conceded Prince Tino 34lb. at Newbury (3m.) last month and will again be ready to take advantage of any lapse on PENDIL'S part.

CAPTAIN CHRISTY is a top Irish novice, but he will need to improve to trouble the above-mentioned pair. Had the Wills Premier 'Chase Final at his mercy until unseating his rider at the second last at Haydock (2½m.) in January.

1973: THE DIKLER. 10-12-0, 9-1, R. Barry (F. Walwyn). Favourites: 0 0 1(jt3) 0 3.

420 223102 NORWELL (Mr. M. Low) Owner 7-10-0 (BF) .... R. R. Evans 40

Betting Forecast.—7-2 Erring Burn, 4 Notification, 5 Cuckolder, 6 Even Sail, 7 Tartan Ace, 8 Spanish Steps, 10 Moonlight Escapade, Mocharabuice.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: ERRING BURN completed the hat-trick with a strong finishing victory over Sonny Somers and Credo's Daughter at Sandown (2½m. 68yd.) last month. Handicapped to win this on that improved effort and should not be troubled by today's trip.

TARTAN ACE has gone up in the weights since scoring an impressive victory over Straight Vulgan at Haydock (3m.) on good ground in January. Has disappointed in recent races, but cannot be left out of calculations.

EVEN SAIL jumps and stays well. Had a length and a half to spare over GIN FIZZ (received 20lb.) on heavy ground at Leicester (3m.) in January.

1973: THE CHISLER. 7-10-10. 6-1. M. Dickinson (A. Dickinson). Favourites: 1 0 3(jt) 0 2

Betting Forecast.—5 Maddenstown, 6 Golden Lancer, 7 Fighting Taffy, True Song, 8 Sycamore, 10 Grangewood Girl, Alcades, 12 Bethphage, Old Man Dimplex.

SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: MADDENTOWN has continued to improve, despite going up in the weights. Ran out a smooth winner from William's Love and Judy Cullen on heavy ground at Naas (2m. 1f.) in January.

GOLDEN LANCER holds a clear chance on his third to Lanzarote in the Imperial Cup at Kempton (2m.) last year. Shapes as though he is returning to that form.

GRANGEWOOD GIRL ran on strongly to account for Be My Guest at Haydock (2½m.) in January. In that sort of form she will be in the shake-up again today.

FIGHTING TAFFY has proved useful and consistent in this type of company. Ran on to take third place behind Flash Imp at Sandown (2m.) on Saturday.

DUAL FORECAST: AMARIND, SOOTHSAYER.

Betting Forecast.—2 Amarind, 11-4 Clever Scot, 3 Soothsayer, 8 L'Escargot, 10 Summerville.

SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: AMARIND was in with every chance until falling two from home in the Two Mile Champion 'Chase here on Tuesday. Had previously run second to Pendil at Kempton (3m.).

SOOTHSAYER was beaten a nose by Lucky Boy III in the Colonial Cup at Camden (USA) in November when trained in America. Obviously very useful.

CLEVER SCOT has disappointed since winning a Wills Premier 'Chase Qualifier at Chepstow (2m. 4f.) over a year ago. His front-running tactics may be suited to this return to the minimum trip.
