Betting Forecast.—4 Townley Stone, 5 Poets Corner, 8 More Prince, 7 Brownie's Gazette, 6 Motor On, 9 Gavs Delight, 10 Cheeky Run, 12 Far Rockaway, 14 Stray Shot.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: TOWNLEY STONE has developed into a pretty smart novice. Followed up an easy win at Ascot (2m) in January with an impressive thirty-length success from Burreck (rec 18lb) at Stratford (2m) last month. Takes a step up, judged on those recent wins, looks the part.

BROWNIE'S GAZETTE is a lot better than his bare form suggests having won four of his five races on the bridge this season. The only defeat came when falling at the last while leading at Huntingdon (2m 4f) last month. Sure to go well and looks to have a very bright future.

NORE PRINCE, a winner of a couple of amateur riders Flat races in Ireland, had his hurdling bog delayed until ten days ago at Naas (2m). Ridden out with hands and heels he showed the better turn of foot.

account for POETS CORNER (gave 4lb) and BOB TISDALL (gave 4lb) a length and three. GAVS DELIGHT (gave 10lb) finished a further three-and-a-half lengths back in fifth place. The winner could prove a useful recruit.

212	12122F	ROCK BALTIC (P Bennett), E Alston 5-11-8 (D, BF)..... M Brisbane 50

Betting Forecast.—4-5 Bobsline, 7-4 Noddy's Ryde, 8 Voice Of Progress, 12 The Ellier, 16 Rock Saint.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: BOBSLINE comes over from Ireland with performances over fences to match his high reputation. An outstanding novice 'chaser, he made short work of his rivals when beating Lamps Later (rec 12lb) twice lengths at Leopardstown (2m 2f), with Daring Run (rec 4lb) a further eight lengths back in third.

NODDY'S RYDE likes to attack his fences and will ensure a sound gallop. Put in some fine leaps when coming home on the bit to account for 8 And K Emperor (rec 8lb) twice lengths at Nottingham (2m) last month.

VOICE OF PROGRESS, a leading novice 'chaser earlier this campaign, blotted his copybook when a disappointing length second to ROCK SAINT (rec 8lb) here (2m) in January. May have been short of a gallop that day and can be expected to step a lot firmer today.

Betting Forecast.—evens Dawn Run, 7 Desert Orchid, 12 Very Promising, For Auction, 14 Boren Prince, 16 Buck House, Amarach, 20 Cut A Dash, Sula Bula.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: DAWN RUN, a controlled front runner, may have outstay his rivals on these terms. Was at her best last spring and has maintained steady progress this campaign. Scored impressively at Leopardstown (2m) last month, finishing five lengths clear of BOREN PRINCE (gave 5lb).

BOREN PRINCE should not reverse those placings with DAWN RUN on today's terms, but turned in a sixth place finish in this race twelve months ago when he was only PROMISING (gave 5lb) with FOR AUCTION (evens) seven lengths back in third. SULA BULA (evens) was a further length back in fourth.

FOR AUCTION, who held the hurdling crown two years ago, has had his training problems and may be found wanting for a turn of foot on good going.

DESERT ORCHID, one of this season's leading hurdlers, showed his worth with an all-the-way fourth success from Stans Pride (rec 5lb) at Wincanton (2m) last month, with only FIVE SUN (gave 10lb) twice lengths back in third. Sure to set a cracking pace and could expose one or two cracks in some highly-regarded hurdlers.

OWEN'S AWAY-DAY MAY PAY DIVIDEND

OWEN O'NEILL, who trains within a stone's throw of Cheltenham, is deserting his local track today to accompany Boyne Hill (2.00) on a 500-mile round trip to Sedgfield.

The Irishman will be in high spirits for the journey however, having seen his 11-4 chance Mister Boot foil gambles on Dyna Drueni and Regency Tam at Southwell yesterday.

Evesham-based jockey John Suthern kept Mister Boot handy until taking a clear lead on the turn for home. Regency Tam, although flattering briefly at the second last, was a spent force before the next and finished more than six lengths third to the winner, with Dyna Drueni a neck in front.
