

Badsworth Boy looks the banker

PUNTERS could be in for a really tough time at Cheltenham today. Five of the six events come into the wide open if not the lottery category.

The exception is the Queen Mother Champion 'Chase (2.50), which seems fairly sure to go to last year's winner, Badsworth Boy. He is in form, whereas Ireland's Kiliklowen has been under a cloud.

One of the most intriguing clashes comes in the Sun Alliance 'Chase (4.05). Royal Fair may be the pick of the Irish, but we have plenty of fancied runners good enough to take care of him.

A Kinsman, Duke of Milan, Forgive N' Forget, Hy-Ko, Lettoch and West Tip are just a few who will have plenty of support.

It really is a bit of a guessing game, but my fancy to beat them all is Ardent Spy.

This gelding always seemed likely to come into his own as a 'chaser' and has done just that. He has a good chance of making it five successive wins.

Donegal Prince is still a novice, but looks extremely well treated in the Midway of Flete Cup (5.15).

Jonjo O'Neill will keep this lazy horse up to his task and can outstay Western Sunset up the final hill.

Palaestrina is now 11 years old but retains plenty of dash.

He has finished strongly to be second in a couple of races this season and is napped to win the final of the Coral Golden Hurdle (3.30). This stiff three miles will be ideal for a horse with bottomless stamina, but the dangers among his 31 rivals are too numerous to mention.

The Sun Alliance Hurdle (2.15) may go to one of the Irish runners, Straight Air and Street Angel are their best and I like the former, even though recent form offers a contradiction.

The National Hunt 'Chase (4.40), is a four-mile slog and I expect Michael Dickinson to win it with Mister Donut, by beating Ireland's Macks Friendly.

Betting Forecast: 5 Baian Sunshine, 6 Street Angel, 7 Straight Air, 8 Brown Trix, 10 Centraline, 11 Mister Lord, 12 Contestar, 16 Flete, Catch Phrase.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: STREET ANGEL, despite two bad mistakes, ran a fine race to finish a seven-length step to Monte (rec 21lb) in a handicap at Naas (2m) eleven days ago. Stayed on and ran in similar fashion when third, beaten one and a half lengths and two and a half, to Dark Ivy (rec 3lb) and Straight Air (rec 10lb) at Fairyhouse (2m 2f) previously. This distance could prove ideal.

STRAIGHT AIR has since finished the form with a six-length victory over Herbert United (rec 16lb) at Punchestown (2m 4f) and is sure to figure at the business end of today's race.

BROWN TRIX showed his appreciation for this trip when accounting for CONTESTER (rec 11lb) by a length and a half at Cheltenham last month. Looks to be improving at the right time.

CATCH PHRASE, who looked destined for top novice honours early on this year, fell at the second in that Cheltenham race and has since disappointed at Newbury (3m 120y).

1983: SABIN DE LOIR, 4-10-14, 16-1, Bradley (M. W. Dickinson), 27 ran.

Betting Forecast: 4-6 Badsworth Boy, 8 Artifice, 7 Rathgorman, 10 Kiliklowen, Little Bay, 16 Pounettes, 33 Royal Radar, The Brockshires, 50 Drummooga, 100 Fishleigh Gamble.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: BADSWORTH BOY won this race last year and looks set for a repeat. Fell on his reappearance, but is unbeaten since landing the odds by twenty lengths from Belvoir (rec 32lb) at Ayr (2m) in February. RATHGORMAN, a stable companion of BADSWORTH BOY, does not look like the force he was at twelve years ago. Well-beaten last of three behind Ireland's Green at Huntingdon (2m 100y) last month. Won this event two years ago.

KILIKLOWEN was impressive when giving Clonlathin 34lb and a three-length beating at Leopardstown (2m 4f) in January. Did not show the same sparkle on heavy ground at Thurles (2m 4f) last month, going under way to York.

1983: BADSWORTH BOY, 8-12-0, 2-1, Earnshaw (M Dickinson), 6 ran.

Betting Forecast: 5 Mossmoran, 6 Manta, 7 Papa's Buskins, 9 Canio, 10 Four Shares, 12 Arctic Menekle, 16 Baz Bombati Vague, 20 Palestrina, Fame The Spur, Kristenson, Mac's Park.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: CANIO is the pick of today's weights on his five-length success over Sonoda (rec 21lb) at the Tote (2m 4f) last month. Never near to challenge when sixth to Mister Lord (Ira) at Plumpton (2m 4f) since and gives the impression he is ready for this trip.

BROOKS LAW would take a deal of beating on last season's useful efforts, which included a fifteen-length victory over Miners Lodge (gave 7lb) on heavy going at Warwick (2m 5f). Also disappointing so far this year.

FOUR SHARES failed to reach a challenging position when fourth to Bucko (gave 5lb) at Newbury (3m 120y) this month. Better judged on her three-length win from Lynn Princess (rec 6lb) at Naas (2m 3f) last month.

MANTA has been brought along steadily this term. Penalised 4lb for a short-head victory over Hold The Road (rec 3lb) at Naas (2m), where he led close home.

1983: FORGIVE N' FORGET, 6-11-6, 5-2, Dwyer (FitzGerald), 23 ran.
