Buckbe does not run states trainer.

Betting Forecast: 5-2, Delious, 3 Waving Diamonds, 5 Seskin Bridge, 7 Cardinal Flower, Connaught River, Buck House, 10 Lean Ar Aghaidh.
TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: DELIOUS has been most impressive and is obviously a smart novice. Completed his hat-trick with an effortless ten-length success from West Tip (gave 4lb) at Stratford last month. Faces his stiffest test today, but has the equipment to remain unbeaten.

WAVING DIAMONDS, travelling in the winter ground of Thurles (2m 4lb) last month, looked much improved in scoring a pillar-to-post six-length success from the more-experienced Boreen Prince (gave 10lb). Reverts to the minimum trip, and may not be so effective.

CARDINAL FLOWER had the problem of being an entire brought home to him at Ayr (2m) last month when travelling in the last of the eight finishers behind Seaborn Record. Fully recovered from that unfortunate experience, he respoored at Doncaster (2m 50lb) sixteen days later and kept on well to beat Great Light (gave 6lb) three-quarters of a length. A useful effort.

SESKIN BRIDGE, who had shown signs of temperament when pulled behind Ros Fondango at Leopardstown (2m) in January, was obviously on good terms with himself at Naas (2m) last month, but was not good enough to beat Seaborn (gave 3lb), going under by three-quarters of a length. Warrants respect on that effort.

Betting Forecast: 8-4 Branding Iron, 4 Kathies Lad, 5 Kilbrittain Castle, 7 The Tarevich, 8 Ro's Owen, Starfen, 12 Bold Yeoman, Ryeman.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: BRANDING IRON, who was unbeaten in his career, was last night's runner-up in the Arkle, but was not good enough to beat Dramatist (gave 3lb) six lengths in this Newbury race. May find this trip on the short side.

TWINDOWN, a smart hurdler at his best, has relinquished his enthusiasm since being put to fences. Looked particularly impressive at Naas (2m 40lb) recently, but was not good enough to beat Beeing True To Owen (rec 4lb) twelve lengths. Sure to win more races.

Betting Forecast: 5-2 For Auction, 3 Royal Vulcan, Ekbalco, 9 Gaye Brief, 10 Broadswood, 16 Daring Run, 20 Fane Ranger, Heighlin, Sula Bula, 25 Miller Hill, 28 Cima, Migrator.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: FOR AUCTION was at his best in this race twelve months ago when accounting for BROADSWOOD by seven lengths, with EKBALCO a length and a half back in third. For AUCTION (gave 9lb) was unbeaten in December. Goes to Cheltenham with a chance second to none.

BROADSWOOD has not always had the best of luck and is obviously handicapped by his inability to quicken at this level. Came back in style at Kempton (2m) in December when beaten a head by EKBALCO (gave 4lb). ROYAL VULCAN has gone from strength to strength this season and has made up into a leading challenger. Suited by the slow pace, he had his rivals floundering around the last at Leopardstown (2m) last month, coming home three lengths clear of DARING RUN (gave 9lb), with FOR AUCTION (gave 9lb) two and a half lengths back in third. Won with a bit in hand and will have benefited from the run.

Betting Forecast: 4-1 Goldspur, 5 Crimson Embers, 6 Mayotte, 8 Shell Burst, Silent Member, Mister Donovan, 12 Baron Blakeney, 14 Sandalay.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: MAYOTTE has not made the expected improvement this season following a bright start, but was not disgraced to finish nine lengths behind Mellie (rec 3lb) at Kempton.

CRIMSON EMBERS, winner of this race twelve months ago and one of last season's leading staying hurdlers, has failed to make a fluent transition to fences and is now trying to re-establish himself over hurdles. Unable to produce a turn of foot behind Mellie (rec 3lb) at Kempton and was beaten fifteen lengths.

Betting Forecast: 3-1 Marnik, 4 Rednael, 8 Saint Taffy, 8 Another Duke, No Pardon, Felicity's Pet, 10 Greasepaint, Rambling Buck, 14 Santulla Boy.

SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: NO PARDON, although no match for Captain John (gave 5lb) at Cheltenham (2m 4lb) last season, stayed on well and had SOUTULLA BOY (rec 4lb) and SAINT TAFFY (gave 5lb) six lengths and fifteen lengths respectively behind in the fourth place. Failed to reappear in last season after falling in Red N Nond's race here (3m 1f) in December and will have benefited from his promising half-length second to Piza (gave 4lb) on his reappearance at Wincanton (2m 5f) last month. Handily weighted.

MARNIK is yet another tribute to the training ability of Michael Dickinson. Difficult to keep sound in recent seasons, he looked set to complete a five-timer at Ludlow (3m) twelve days ago, but came down at the last, leaving Regatta to score.

FELICITY'S PET is an out-and-out stayer. Led and went clear approaching three out at Punchestown (3m 6f) last month, comfortably accounting for Ballyhempshire (rec 14lb) by three lengths.

Betting Forecast: 5-2 Marsh Night, 5 Sea Merchant, Fearless Imp, 8 Run With Pride, 8 Classified, Reldis, 10 Cruise Missile, Spinning Saint, Rorqual.

SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: SEA MERCHANT is a genuine and consistent chaser. Beaten by the handicapper since completing a five-timer at Haydock (2m) in December, he has been eased in the weights today and holds a fine chance on his third, beaten four lengths and a head, to Newtown Bay (rec 10lb) and Little Bay (gave 7lb) at RESTLESS SHOT (gave 4lb) at Huntingdon (2m 100y) last month. Has shown a liking for the course.

WATER ROCK showed his appreciation for today's trip with an all-the-way seven-length success from Professor Plum (gave 2lb) at Wincanton (2m) on Boxing Day. Has not run since.

For Auction can retain his title

By TONY SWEENEY

I NAP For Auction to retain his Champion Hurdle title this afternoon, undeterred by his four failures this season.

There have been legitimate excuses for these defeats and even forgetting about that alibi, no Champion Hurdle aspirant has put up a better trial than that of For Auction in the Sweeps Hurdle.

He had 18lb more to carry than when narrowly winning the same race last year and failed by only a whisker to give 2st to Fred Cotter.

According to trainer

Michael Cunningham For Auction "is jumping out of his skin" and his final trial was most impressive.

Felicity's Pet, going like a winner when unseating her rider at the third last fence in the Leopardstown 'Chase' is preferred to Greasepaint in the Kim Muir (4.25). The gallop cannot be too strong for Felicity's Pet, Twinnburn is not the safest of jumpers, but as former winner of the Erin Foods Champion Hurdle he has a touch of class lacking in the majority of his opponents in the Arkle Cup (2.35).
