LETTOCH THE ACE

THE Michael Dickinson horses—apart from yesterday—not only win the majority of the races they contest but also appear to improve with each outing.

With runners in five of the events at Cheltenham today Michael could well create what I believe would be a record at this meeting.

Each of his runners has an outstanding chance and I fancy Michael to saddle an unprecedented four winners.

By NEWSBOY (Bob Butchers)

The race he may not land is the Sun Alliance 'Chase (4.05), in which he is represented by Righthand Man.

This one and Gallaher are obvious threats to all of them, but I am very sweet on Gaye Chance. Mercy Rimell's gelding has been crying out for this three miles and will be mighty hard to beat.

The Dickinson stampede can start with Lettoch in the Sun Alliance Hurdle (2.15). This one has never stopped improving from what was a very ordinary beginning.

Claims

There are, of course, dangers galore, but I have formed a very high opinion of Lettoch, who is napped to gain a seventh successive win.

Stablemates Rathgorman and Badsworth Boy go for the Queen Mother Champion 'Chase (2.50). Both have excellent claims but Rathgorman excels on this course and should win it for the second year running.

Brunton Park is a confident choice to win the final of the Coral Golden Hurdle (3.30). He was off colour when failing behind Forgive N' Forget at Ayr.

Since then, however, he has returned to top form and I have no hesitation in taking him to turn the tables.

The final Dickinson runner is Slieve Bracken in the Mildmay of Flete 'Chase (5.15). He is still a bit of a novice who takes a few chances with his fences.

With bottom weight he must go close, but Bishops Bow could take advantage of any jumping errors.

It is probably a case of pick where you like in the National Hunt 'Chase (4.40). The Irish may have a say in the finish, but I prefer the known stamina of Canford Ginger.

Betting Forecast:—4 Lettoch, 11-2 Inish Glora, 6 Ballinacurra Lad, 7 Richardstown, 8-1 Sabin du Loir, 7 Golden Friend, 10 Green Bramble, Noble Heir, 12 Stag Hill, 14 Simon Legree.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: LETTOCH has won his last six races and was impressive in cruising home by five lengths from Skewsby at Doncaster (2m 4f) last month. A smart young hurdler.

STAG HILL got going too late to trouble Waving Diamonds and Boreen Prince at Thurles (2m 4f) last month. Has done best when ridden up with the leaders from the start.

DAWN RUN comes into the reckoning on her effort in accounting for Richardstown (rec. 14lb) by eight lengths at Punchestown (2m 4f). in February.

SABIN DU LOIR, stable companion of LETTOCH, has won his three races with the minimum of effort and his true merit will be known only after this race.

Betting Forecast.—5-2 Badsworth Boy, 100-30 Rathgorman, 9-2 News King, 11-2 Drumgora, 7 Artifice, 8 Western Rose.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: BADSWORTH BOY beat stable-companion RATHGORMAN (gave 10lb) by twelve lengths at Stratford (2m) last month and may still have the edge on today's terms.

RATHGORMAN has shown his best form on this track, beating Chinrullah by twenty lengths in this race last year.

NEWS KING is at his best on a sound surface. Very good effort to beat Classified (rec. 18lb) by half a length at Sandown (2m 18y) in January.

Betting Forecast.—3 Brunton Park, 9-2 Forgive N'Forget, 8 Rising Falcon, 9 Brass Change, 11 Torbole, 12 Sleepless Knave, 14 Rodney Parade, Stay Quiet, 16 Bally Go, Run'n Fly, 20 Greatham House, Taras.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: FORGIVE N'FORGET did not have to be asked a serious question to account for Run N' Fly (rec 8lb) by twelve lengths at Ayr (2m 6f) in January. Staying power is already proved, as he had previously scored at Catterick (3m 300y). Can continue on the upgrade.

BRUNTON PARK came back after losing touch four flights out to finish sixth behind FORGIVE N'FORGET (rec 4lb) in the Ayr race. That was obviously not his form as he showed at Kelso (2m 4f) this month in beating Rydal Mount (rec 18lb) by four lengths. Sure to figure in the finish.

BRASS CHANGE needs a test of stamina. Good effort in accounting for Fearless Seal (gave 5lb) by ten lengths at Ascot (3m) in January.

Betting Forecast.—9-4 Righthand Man, 11-4 Gaye Chance, 5 Gallaher, 13-2 Everett, 9 Acarine, 10 King Ba Ba, 14 Bush Guide.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: RIGHTHAND MAN turned in a game effort in beating Fortina's Express (rec 7lb) and Brown Chamberlin (gave 12lb) by threequarters of a length and two lengths in the Greenall Whitley Breweries 'Chase at Haydock (3m) this month. Making up into a very good chaser.

GAYE CHANCE must be given a sound chance on his recent effort in finishing three lengths and half a length third to Fifty Dollars More (gave 8lb) and Branding Iron (gave 2lb) at Haydock (2m 4f). Three miles suits him better.

EVERETT has been let down by his jumping on his last two appearances. Took advantage of blunders by GAYE CHANCE to beat his rival by five lengths at Cheltenham (3m 1f) in December.

1982: BROWN CHAMBERLIN, 7-11-4, 7-1, Francome (F Winter). 15 ran. Favourites: 0 0 0 0 3

Betting Forecast.—9-2 Bit of a Skite, 6 Quare Hours, 15-2 Galleon Beach, 8 Canford Ginger, 10 Like-a-Lord, Why Forget, 12 Master Nibble, Garrick Swaine, 14 Lantern Lodge.

SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: QUARE HOURS has looked quite a useful 'chaser. Had a bit to do at the weights when well beaten behind Gay Spartan in a handicap at Worcester (3m) this month. Beat Coolafancy (gave 11lb) by three lengths at Leicester (3m) in January.

CANFORD GINGER, third to Acarine and Solid Rock at Kempton (3m) last month, will be seen to advantage over this trip.

CHANGE IT gives the impression that stamina is his forte. Ran Laurensun to five lengths at Stratford (2m 6f) last Thursday.

1982: HAZY DAWN, 7-12-7, 8-1, W Mullins (P Mullins, Ireland), 26 ran. Favourites: 3jt 0 0 0 0

Betting Forecast.—7-2 Slieve Bracken, 5 Sea Image, 11-2 Doubleuagain, 7 Bishops Bow, Pay Related, 8 Direct Line, 10 Tabasco Time, 12 Onapromise.

SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: DIRECT LINE is a smart 'chaser on his day and is suited by a sound surface. Shaped as though returning to his best when fourth to Quarto at Ascot (2m 4f) in January.

SLIEVE BRACKEN was an impressive fifteen-length winner from Shotang (rec 14lb) at Ludlow (2m 4f) this month and is on a handy mark.

KING OR COUNTRY has been rather disappointing since accounting for Duscky Duke (rec 1lb) by seven lengths at Haydock (2m 4f) in November.

TABASCO TIME ran Fortune Seeker (rec 6lb) to a length at Leopardstown (3m) last month.

1982: DOUBLEUAGAIN, 8-10-0, 11-1, F Berry, (A Geraghty, Ireland), 13 ran. Favourites: 2 0 0 1 0

*Allowances: T Wall, V McKevitt, S Sherwood, J Bryan 4lb; others 7lb.

Radar's on target for next year

DAVID MOORHEAD is just an interested observer of this week's proceedings at Cheltenham, but he intends to be in the thick of the action at next year's Festival.

After Royal Radar slaughtered the opposition in the New Furrow Novices 'Chase at Sedgefield yesterday, Northumberland-based Moorhead declared: "This horse's objective is the Queen Mother Champion Chase . . . and he'll win it!"

Royal Radar, partnered by regular jockey Jimmy Walton, set a scorching pace from the off and, apart from a tendency to jump to the right, was never in danger, coming home 12 lengths clear of Ocean Cruise.

Moorhead added: "He was even more impressive when he won at Ayr last time. This track today really didn't suit him, as the bends are a bit sharp. He prefers a galloping track and I would like to try him on a right-handed course as soon as possible."
