 Betting Forecast.—7.2 Gay Spartan, 4 Door Step, 5 Shady Deal, 6 Corbiere, Pirate Son, 10 Bold Argument, Felicity's Pet, 14 Scot Lane, Tabasco Time.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: PIRATE SON is a progressive type of chaser who has been given a fine opportunity today. Shown (3m) fifteen days ago and followed-up with a half-length win from Holly Dandy (rec 23/1b) at Catterick (3m 300y). Sure to make a solid show.
 DOOR STEP, runner-up to Hay Day (gone 3lb) here (4m) last season, comes into the reckoning on his eighth-length second to FELICITY'S PET (rec 11/1b) at Punchestown (3m) in December. A little disappointing in subsequent efforts, but ran much better at Naas (2m 40y) last month, beating his Me Again (rec 6/1b) a length.
 GAY SPARTAN came back from injury to beat Pilot Officer (rec 20/1b) two and a half lengths at Worcester (3m) fifteen days ago and followed-up with a half-length win from Holly Dandy (rec 23/1b) at Catterick (3m 300y). Sure to make a solid show.
 SCOT LANE, winner of this race twelve months ago, has disappointed this season. Usually at his best at this time of the season.
 1982: SCOT LANE 9-10-12, 15-2, C. Smith (M. Tate), 18 ran. Favourites: abd 0 0 0 0.

 Betting Forecast.—5 Castletown Lad, 6 Fredcoter, Robin Wonder, 15-2 Burns, Amarach, 8 Thurston, 10 Janus, Du Maurier, 16 Jungle Jim.
 SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: CASTLETOWN LAD fulfilled previous promise with a last month and can follow-up off this mark today.
 PRINCE OF BERMUDA, beaten a head by Path Of Peace (levels) in this race last year, has not been in that form this season and consequently is fitted with blinkers.
 ABU TORKEY was at his best at the weekend of last season. He has not been disgraced this term and was beaten four and a half lengths by BAYAL (rec 22/1b) at Doncaster (2m 4m) in January. Fitted with blinkers for the first time this season.
 BURNS, off the course last season, made a very satisfactory reappearance with a respectable fifth to Brave Hussar (gone 6lb) at Newbury (2m 100y). A smart hurdler when sound.
 1982: PATH OF PEACE, 6-10-4, J. J. O'Neill (Thomson), 23 ran. Favourites: abd 0 0 1 2.

 Betting Forecast.—4.9 Observe, 9.2 Henry Kissinger, 12 Drumgora, 18 King Spurge, Doubleaguain, Dashy Creek.
 SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: OBSERVE is developing into a good chaser. Sidestepped the Gold Cup to run here and is difficult to oppose. Ridden out to beat Royal Judgement (gone 5lb) two lengths at Sandown (3m 118y) last month. Suited by today's race conditions.
 HENRY KISSINGER, despite scoring at Sandown (2m 4f 68y) in January, has had a pretty dismal season so far. Looked very tired when beaten twenty-five lengths by Kathies Lad (rec 21/1b) at Kempton (2m 4f) last month.

 Betting Forecast.—3 Wollow Will, 9 Alastor O Mayros, 10 Cut A Dash, 12 Saxe Farm, 14 Jorge Miguel, Run For Gold, Manta, 16 Ross Fandango, Kotach, 20 Primrolla, Whole Shebang.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: CUT A DASH was obviously untried by the shop. Kempton (2m) track last month but did well to 100y. Looks best of the 12-0 (D) juveniles, however, on his head success from WOLLOW WILL (levels) over course and distance in January.
 WOLLOW WILL suffered his only defeat over hurdles (at that race and will be better suited by today's faster ground. Appeared set to score when leading at the last that day, but was run out of it close home. Impressive at Haydock (2m) recently when coming home five lengths clear of subsequent winner Fernbach (rec 5/1b).
 ALASTOR O MAYROS made his debut over hurdles behind CUT A DASH (gone 3lb) that day, finishing a promising twelve-length third. Has remained unbeaten since and was not hand pressed to beat Buckle (rec 10/1b) five lengths at Sedgefield (2m) last month. Tends to make his mistakes early.
 SAXON FARM is a tough and consistent youngster. Has come back from a mid-season break to beat JORGE MIGUEL (rec 7/1b) two lengths at Fowtwell (2m 2f) and a half-length win from Berfen (rec 6/1b) at Newcastle (2m 120y).

 Betting Forecast.—2 Compton Lad, 4 Eliogarty, 5 Colonel Heather, 13-2 Earls Brig, Tied Cottage, 10 Chinrullah, 14 The Drunken Duck.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: COMPTON LAD, unbeaten in his five 'chases' last term, is following a similar pattern again today. Made an impressive seasonal reappearance with an unchallenged twelve-length success from Tied Cottage (rec 7/1b) at Warwick (3m 4f 300y) last month and overcame an uncharacteristic last-fence blunder to beat Wagoners Walk (rec 14/1b) four lengths at Haydock (3m) twelve days ago. A very smart hurdler.
 TIED COTTAGE has a fine record over this course. Although no longer the force he was he ran well to finish just over five lengths adrift of Mullercurry (rec 3/1b) at Fairyhouse (2m 4f) last season.
 ELIOGARTY is highly regarded in this type of event in Ireland. Goes well for his young pilot and must be respected on his four-length success from Corryveenee (levels) at Dundalk (3m 164y) in May.
 CHINRULLAH has been a regular visitor here and should be capable of making his mark in this type of event.

 Betting Forecast.—5.2 Silver Buck, 11.4 Bregawn, 8 Combs Ditch, 9 Wayward Lad, 10 Captain John, 11 Fifty Dollars More, 12 Brown Chamberlin, 14 Ashley House, 66 Richdee, 100 Midnight Love, 250 Whiggie Gee.

TV SPOTFORM ANALYSIS: SILVER BUCK took last season's supreme award heavily ground to beat stable-companion BREGAWN two lengths at Newbury (3m) in November, but has been under a cloud recently with a throat infection and will be sharpened up by his facile seven-length success from Santa Noel (rec 35/1b) at Market Rasen (3m).
 BREGAWN has developed into a top class chaser, fully capable of taking today's title but has shown a reluctance to line up on several occasions this season. Nearly three over a winning chance at Newbury (3m 2f 82y) in November when losing concentration at the last and blundering badly, but came back strongly to beat CAPTAIN JOHN (rec 10/1b) three lengths.
 COMBS DITCH has gone from strength to strength this season. Suited by the slow pace, he quickened smartly to account for half a length at Wincanton (3m 1f) in November.
 BROWN CHAMBERLIN (gone 4lb) and ASHLEY HOUSE (levels) by six lengths and one and a half here (3m 1f). Force a stiffer test today.
 1982: SILVER BUCK 10-12-0, 8-1, Barnshaw (M. W. Dickinson), 22 ran. Favourites: 21 2 0 0

Caroline could make history

By TONY SWEENEY
 NO WOMAN jockey has ever ridden a winner at the Irish Grand National Festival meeting.
 But the Irish handicapper gave an emphatic pointer to the chances of Caroline Beasley making history this afternoon in the Christmas Foxhunter 'Chase' (2.50).
 Caroline rides her own horse, Eliogarty, and in the Irish Grand National weights the handicapper has set Eliogarty to give a chunk of weight to former stars Chinnullah and Tied Cottage.

Golden Fandango, whom he beat at Leopardstown last time out, finished a commendable second to Buck House.
 Owen's Image, will welcome the extra furlong of the Ritz Club 'Chase' (4.05).

WINNING WAYS WITH CORAL

As one of the leading bookmakers, CORAL offer variety and value-for-money in your betting so why not try a T.V. Yankee on today's racing at Cheltenham—an opportunity for a large win for a small outlay, select 4 horses, to give you 6 doubles, 4 trebles and an accumulator.

On Gold Cup day of the 1982 Festival, a 50p Win Yankee on the four televised races would have showed a RETURN OF £45,170.75 (before Tax)
