Amazing time for Walwyn

By CHARLES FAWCUS

FULKE WALWYN'S luck finally ran out at 4.50 last night, but he still goes into today's Grand National on the crest of a wave.

After Fauloon had brought his tally for the week to eight, Lucyfar looked all set to follow up, only to fall four fences from home.

"It's amazing as two weeks ago I couldn't have won a seller at Devon and Exeter," smiled Fulke.

"I knew the horses weren't quite right, but they weren't wrong enough to stop running them. Now they have really come good and I doubt if I've ever had a week like this in my life.

"I shall certainly enjoy myself tomorrow as Delmoss knows his way round the track all right, while Bonum Omen loves the ground and he'll stay all day."

Fauloon won in convincing style, watched for the first time ever by his American owner Robert Kreckhefer.

Lucyfar's tumble left the way open for Ballymilan, although he had to survive a steward's inquiry after crossing Churchfield Boy at the last fence.

But Churchfield Boy's compatriots did pretty well with John Crowley landing a first and third in the first race after hot favourite Forgive N' Forget had been pulled up.

"He's just had enough," said disappointed jockey Mark Dwyer, but the stewards ordered a dope test on the 11-8 favourite.

Second Irish winner was Dawn Run, trained by Paddy Mullins who has his horses and family in cracking form.

Three of his sons have ridden winners in the last two days and 21-year-old Tony, who rode Dawn Run, is likely to partner her again against this country's best hurdlers in the Templegate Hurdle

MIXED FORTUNES

BROOKS LAW, running over two and threequarter miles for the first time, stormed home by 15 lengths at Devon & Exeter yesterday to give Launceston farmer David Bloomfield his third training success.

The winner was partnered by trainer's cousin Leslie Bloomfield, who quickly experienced the mixed fortunes of racing when Statist came a cropper at the third last in the next race.
