Proclaim can land Harwood hat-trick

By NEWSBOY (Bob Butchers).

THE 2,000 Guineas Trial (3.05) at Salisbury today looks likely to be a benefit for Guy Harwood.

He saddles his easy Leicester winner Proclaim, who should have little trouble landing the odds. Although Indian Rajah is unbeaten, he has not run in this class.

Cat O'Nine Tails and Lofty are likelier propositions, but I doubt if any can prevent Guy taking this race for the third successive year.

The outcome of the 1,000 Guineas Trial (2.00) will probably have no real bearing on the first fillies Classic at Newmarket.

They are second division material unless one of them has made abnormal progress. The pick is Dancing Meg and the soft ground may enable her to score over a distance short of her best.

Her jockey Billy Newnes has other fancied mounts. He partners Wildhorn in the Coast To Coast Handicap (1.30). This colt showed fair form last year and is taken to beat Merely A Secret.

Confident

Another Newnes scorer could be It's A Pleasure in the Wallop Handicap (4.00). She had a succession of places last season and looks well enough in to account for Debaj.

Pusey Street ran a fine race to be second at Kempton on Monday and is a confident choice for the Cranborne Handicap (2.30). Emerald Reef was backward last year, but can show her worth in the Andover Stakes (4.30).

At Lingfield, Hattan is napped to win the Tonbridge Handicap (2.15) with bottom weight. He was runner-up to Swinging Moon at Folkestone and is now 2st. better off. I reckon Worth Avenue is the one to beat.

Heart Of Steel was caught close home by Swift Palm at Doncaster and that seems quite good enough for the Ardingly Handicap (2.45).

The Marshall Racing Anniversary Handicap (2.40) at Edinburgh offers a great chance to Nanushka, but the outstanding bet is Changed His Mind in the Marshall Racing Stakes (4.50).

POSTSCRIPTS

★ David Elsworth, having won the Lincoln with Mighty Fly, bids for an historic Spring double with CANFORD GINGER in today's Grand National. This chaser's second to Bit of a Skite at Cheltenham took a boost when that horse went on to win the Irish Grand National. Worth an each-way interest.

★ Conditions underfoot at Salisbury will suit Peter Walwyn's MERELY A SECRET and this colt is expected to go close in the 1.30.

★ ZAHEER, outpaced over five furlongs at Leicester, can make amends over the extended seven furlongs of the Lancing Handicap (4.15) at Lingfield.

TV ANALYSIS

1.30 STAR OF A GUNNER showed improved form to score by two-and-a-half lengths and eight lengths from favourite Balled Island (rec 4lb) and Tropical Red (rec 11b) at Nottingham (1m 50y) on Monday. Remains on a winning mark.

MERELY A SECRET won at Ayr (7f) and finished a length second to the useful Dancing Meg (gave 16lb) in a Nursery at York (1m) last season. Sound chance on those efforts and is suited by give in the ground.

2.00 DANCING MEG showed useful form as a two-year-old. Ran Acclimatize to a length and a half in the Hoover Fillies Mile at Ascot in September. Should be good enough against this opposition.

MISTY FOR ME had a purple patch in mid-season as a youngster, winning three times, including a victory in a Nursery under ten stone at Goodwood (5f).

FAIRLAWNE had five lengths to spare over Private Label (gave 3lb) at Haydock (5f) in September and went on to run Aldern Stream (rec 7lb) and Misguided (rec 7lb) to a neck and a short-head at Goodwood (5f).

2.30 PUSEY STREET stepped up on previous efforts when running Sweet Monday (gave 11b) to a length over this trip at Kempton on Monday. A repetition of that performance would see him home here.

AMOROUS won twice last season and ran Milk Heart (gave 11b) to two lengths over this course and distance.

ROMAN RULER won at Nottingham (6f) last July. Failed by a head to catch hot-favourite Off The Hook (gave 16lb) at Goodwood (6f) in September.

3.05 PROCLAIM bids to follow in the footsteps of the stable's Hays, who won this race last year, and will be a hot favourite to do so. Useful form as a youngster and was not troubled to beat Drumalis by a length and a half on his reappearance at Leicester (7f) twelve days ago.

CAT O'NINE TAILS ran well as a two-year-old. Finished half-a-length and two-and-a-half lengths third to Crystal Glitters (rec 9lb) and Drumalis (rec 9lb) at Saint-Cloud (6f 110y) in October.
